Documents and Money:

Keep your identification, passport, and money in a secure location, preferably in a lockable travel bag.

Carry copies of your documents and store them separately.

Travel Insurance:

Make sure you have travel insurance that covers potential medical emergencies and repatriation if necessary.

Health and Personal Safety:

Consult a doctor before your trip and ensure you have recommended vaccinations.

Drink bottled water and avoid ice in drinks if you're unsure about water quality.

Use sunscreen, as Quito is at high altitude, and the sun can be quite strong.

Transportation:

Use reputable taxi services and request a taxi from a safe location, such as your hotel.

Our suggestion: +593 99 692 9999

Use ride-sharing apps like Uber.

If traveling by bus, keep an eye on your belongings.

Street Safety:

Avoid walking alone in the city at night, especially in less crowded areas.

Don't display valuable items on the street, such as expensive jewelry or electronic devices.

Currency Exchange:

Exchange money at authorized banks or exchange offices rather than on the street.

Communication:

Learn some basic Spanish phrases, as not everyone speaks English.

Carry a mobile phone with international roaming or a local SIM card to stay connected.

Emergencies:

Save emergency numbers in your phone, including the police (101) and medical assistance (911).

Remember that personal safety is essential in any travel destination. If you follow these guidelines and exercise caution at all times, you should have a safe and enjoyable visit to Quito, Ecuador.
